

A BRAND'S GUIDE TO WORKING WITH ME

Show customers what makes your product worth choosing.

Good content is more than filming a product: it's knowing what grabs attention, what to say and what viewers should do next. I shape the idea with you, then film and edit natural, relatable videos. As a former lawyer, I read your brief properly so the video says what you need it to say, and we agree everything in writing before I film.

What is UGC, and who posts it?

UGC (user-generated content) shows real people using products, so it feels like a recommendation.

	UGC CREATION	INFLUENCER POSTING
Who posts it?	Your brand, on its channels or in ads.	The creator, on their account.
What are you buying?	Videos and agreed usage rights.	A post shared with the creator's audience.

Posting on my own account is a separate, paid service.

What you receive

- An edited vertical video, 15 to 60 seconds
- An opening that catches attention
- A clear message about your product
- A next step for viewers, like visiting your website

Start with one; ongoing collaborations work best.

Where you can use it

Social posts (no paid promotion)	Included
Paid advertising for 3 months	Additional fee
Longer use or raw footage	Quoted separately
Copyright	Stays with me (you get the usage rights above)
